Rule and Orders (Other than those published in Parts I, I-A, and I-L) made by the Government of Gujarat under the Central Acts

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

Notification

Sachivalaya, Gandhinagar, 24th December, 2007

CONSTITUTION OF INDIA.

NO. (GN-41)-2007-VVK-1999-1711-TH3 .-In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India, and in supersession of all the rules made in this behalf, the Governor of Gujarat hereby makes the following rules for regulating the conditions of services of persons appointed as Commercial Tax Officer in the Gujarat Commercial Tax Department, in so far as they relate to the passing of the departmental examination, namely :-

1. (1) These rules may be called the Gujarat Commercial Tax Officers' (Department Examination) Rules, 2007.
- (2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.
- (3) They shall apply to the persons appointed in the Commercial Tax Department as Commercial Tax Inspectors or as the case may be, Commercial Tax Officers whether by promotion or otherwise:

Provided that these rules shall not apply to the persons, who have, before the appointed date passed the examination or have been exempted from passing the examination:

Provided further that where any such person has, before the appointed date, already availed of all the chances prescribed under the old rules for passing the examination, he shall be allowed to avail one additional chance to pass the examination under these rules, which shall have to be availed of at the first examination to be held under these rules, subject to the condition that he shall not be entitled to claim seniority over and, shall become junior to all those who have passed the examination and have been promoted regularly to higher post earlier than him.

2. In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,-

- (a) "Appendix" means an Appendix appended to these rules;
- (b) "Appointed day" means the day appointed for bringing into force all or any of the provisions of these rules;
- (c) "direct recruit" means a person appointed as a Commercial Tax Officer otherwise than by promotion from a lower post;
- (d) "examination or relevant examination" means the departmental examination for the promotion to the post of Commercial Tax Officer specified in these rules, or as the case may be, under the old rules;

- (e) "Inspector" means a person promoted from the post of a senior clerk or directly recruited as Sales Tax Inspector of as the case may be, Commercial Tax Officer;
- (f) "old rules" means the rules for the departmental examination for promotion to the posts of Sales Tax Officers which were in force immediately before the appointed date;
- (g) "Specified chances" means the number of chances specified in these rules within which a person is required to pass the examination.
- (h) "specified period" means the period specified in these rules within which a person is required to pass the examination.

3. Subject to the provisions of rules 5-

(1) every direct recruit who is appointed as Commercial Tax Officer shall be required to pass the examination within a period of two years from the date of his appointment as Commercial Tax Officer.

Provided that if the period of passing the examination as provided in this rule expires before the date of holding the examination, the said period shall have been extended until the date of the declaration of the result of the next examination so held.

(2) A direct recruit who has passed the post training examination for direct recruits to the Gazetted Posts prescribed in the Gazetted Officer's (Pre-service Training and Examination) Rules, 1970, specified in column(1) of the table shown below, shall be exempted from appearing the passing the corresponding papers in the examination prescribed in these rules as specified in column (2) of the said table.

4. In order to be eligible for promotion as Commercial Tax Officer, an Inspector shall be required to pass the examination, within a period of six year from the date of his appointment unless he has been exempted from passing it:

Provided further that an Inspector who had completed six year's service on the appointed day but who was not allowed to appear at the Inspectors Examination, shall be required to pass the examination within a period of six year from the appointed day and an Inspector who has passed the Inspectors Examination and has also completed six years service on the appointed day but who was not allowed to appear at the relevant examination, shall be required to pass the examination prescribed under these rules within a period of three years from the appointed date:

Provided further that if the period of passing the examination as provided in these rules expires before the date of holding of the examination, the said period shall be extended until the date of declaration of the result of the examination so held:

Provided further that no Inspector shall be eligible to appear at the examination until he has completed two years service as Inspector and has passed the departmental examination of Inspectors.

5. The Examination shall have to be passed in not more than three chances within the specified period:
- Provided that the chances already availed of or which should have been availed of before the appointed date under the old rules shall be counted as having been availed of under these rules:
- Provided further that persons belonging to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes may be given one additional chance which shall have to be availed of within the period specified in rule 3 in the case of direct recruits; and within a period of one year from the date of expiry of the period mentioned in rule 4 in the case of persons who are eligible for promotion to higher post.
6. If a direct recruit fails to pass the examination as required under these rules, his services shall be terminated:
- Provided that if in the case of any such person, the State Government is satisfied that he could not pass the examination at which he had his last chance for reasons beyond his control or that he failed to pass such examination by a very narrow margin of marks, the State Government may, after recording reasons in writing, give him one more chance to pass the examination.
7. Where an Inspector who has failed to pass the examination within the period specified in rule 4 and according to the chances available to him under rule 5, he shall, notwithstanding such failure, be eligible to appear at any time in such examination, on payment of an examination fee as may be determined by the Government from time to time and if he passed the examination, he shall be eligible for promotion to the post of Commercial Tax Officer according to his original seniority in the cadre of Commercial Tax Inspector;
- Provided that he shall not be entitled to claim seniority in the cadre of Commercial Tax Officers over those who may have been promoted as Commercial Tax Officer before he becomes eligible for promotion to the post of Commercial Tax Officer on account of their having passed the departmental examination within the period specified in rule 4 and according to the chances available to them under rule 5.
8. An Inspector who passes the examination within specified period and in specified chances, shall on his promotion to the post of Commercial Tax Officer, be assigned seniority over a person, if any, who although being junior to him in the cadre of Inspector may have been promoted as Commercial Tax Officer earlier by reason of his having passed the examination earlier.
9. In the event of a qualified Inspector not being available for promotion to the post of Commercial Tax Officer an unqualified Inspector not qualified for promotion and whose chances to pass the examination are not exhausted under rule 4 or 5 may be promoted to officiate as a Commercial Tax Officer, subject to the condition that he shall be reverted as an Inspector on availability of an Inspector, qualified for promotion or on his failure to pass the examination, within the period and according to the chances specified in rule 4 or 5 whichever occurs earlier.
- Explanation: In this rule "a qualified Inspector" means an Inspector who has passed the examination or an Inspector who is exempted from passing the examination.
10. The increments of a Commercial Tax Inspector shall not be withheld for failure to pass the examination and if in the case of an Inspector, his increments, if any, were withheld before the appointed date for failure to pass an examination under the old rules, they shall be released with effect from the appointed date and all future increments shall accrue to him as if no increment had been withheld, provided, however, that such Inspector shall not be entitled to claim the arrears of pay which were lost to him by reason of the increments having been withheld,
11. The Commissioner of Commercial Tax shall hold the examination twice in a calendar year through Gujarat Institute of Commercial Tax Management.
12. The syllabus for the Examination shall be as specified in Appendix-A.
13. An Inspector or a Commercial Tax Officer who desires to appear at any examination under these rules shall send his application for enlisting his name as a candidate for such examination to the Gujarat Institute of Commercial Tax Management, Ahmedabad through the head of office in the form in appendix-B, at least sixty days before the date of commencement of examination. The Gujarat Institute of Commercial Tax Management shall scrutinize the application and on the strength of the certificate given by the head of office that he is eligible to appear at the examination shall admit the candidate. If the applicant subsequently decides not to appear at the examination he shall give intimation thereof to the Gujarat Institute of Commercial Tax Management through the Head of the Office at least thirty days before the date of commencement of examination. In the event of any person failing to appear at an examination after having enlisted his name as a candidate for appearing there at, but without intimating as aforesaid, he shall be deemed to have lost one chance to pass the examination:

Provided that the State Government may condone the failure on the part of any person to give intimation as aforesaid and the consequences arising there from if he is satisfied that the person had failed to give intimation within time for reasons beyond his control.

14. (1) The standard for passing the departmental examination shall be fifty percent of the total marks assigned in each paper.
- (2) A candidate shall be allowed to answer the papers of all the subjects with the help of text-books of the subjects such as bare Acts, rules, text without any commentaries or case laws and includes departmental manuals published by the Government.
- (3) An unsuccessful candidate who secures sixty percent or more marks in any one or more papers shall be exempted from appearing in those papers at the subsequent examination:

Provided that any exemption obtained by such candidate under the old rules shall be deemed to have been obtained under these rules.

15. A candidate may apply for verification of marks within thirty days from the date of declaration of the result through Head of office to the Gujarat Institute of Commercial Tax Management, Ahmedabad on a plain paper. He shall be required to pay the fees, as may be determined by the Government from time to time in the Government Treasury. The application shall be submitted along with the original copy of Chalan and the mark sheet. In any circumstances, there shall not be a re-assessment of the paper.

FOREST AND ENVIRONMENT DEPARTMENT

Notification

Sachivalaya, Gandhinagar, 27th March, 2008.

No. SFT-302004-393-G.1(1) .- Whereas in the state, provisions under the Saurashtra Felling of Trees (Infliction of Punishment) Act, 1951 have been broadly successful in protecting tress

AND

Whereas Social Forestry is very successful in certain areas of the State

AND

Whereas it is desirable to prepare an enabling environment for private plantation by liberalizing the control regime for obtaining the permission for felling of some tree species grown on private non forest land so that people are encouraged to adopt farm/Agro/Homestead forestry in a major way leading to adequate tree planting on private lands.

AND

Whereas it is desirable to create a balance between regulation and promotion of forestry in private sector without compromising the ecological and floral interests of forest and tree conservation;

In exercise of powers conferred by clause (c) of section 2 of the Saurashtra Felling of Trees (Infliction of Punishment) Act, 1951 (Saurashtra Act, XVII of 1951) the Government hereby notifies that :

(1) Permission for felling of trees of Limdo, Baval, Kanji, Khijdo, Ambo and Amli under Saurashtra Felling of Trees (Infliction of Punishment) Act, 1951 shall be required in the following areas only.

- A. Mangrove covered area
- B. Notified urban areas and Notified ecosensitive areas
- C. Within 5 Kms of the boundary of Reserved Forest, Sanctuaries, National Parks, Sea coast and desert.
- D. Areas above 500 Meters MSL
- E. Within the distance of 200 metres from the edge of the National Highways, State Highways and District Roads.

- F. Kaprada, Dharampur, Dangs, Vansda, Vyara, Uchchhal, Songadh, Umapada, Mandvi, Valod, Tilakwada, Dediapada, Sagbara, Nizar, Kawant, Pavijetpur, Chhotaudepur, Naswadi, Sankheda, Jambughoda, Dhanpur, Devgad baria, Garbada, Limkheda, Dahod, Jhalod, Fatepura, Morva (Hada), Halol, Ghoghamba, Kalol, Godhra, Shehera, Lunavada, Santrapur, Kadana, Khanpur, Virpur, Bayad, Malpur, Dhansura, Modasa, Meghraj, Bhiloda, Vijaynagar, Khedbrahma, Danta, Mendarda, Malia, Talala, Una, Khambha, Dhari, Visavadar, Junagadh & Vanthali Talukas.

- (2) For areas other than those specifically mentioned hereinabove in para (1), the relaxation from above permission shall be on following conditions.

- (a) Minimum age/girth criterion for felling of trees will be as under.

Species	Minimum Age of trees in years	Minimum girth (GHB) in cm.

LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT

Notification

Sachivalaya, Gandhinagar, 3rd July, 2008.

CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

No. KHR- 2008-127-CLE/10-2007/1069-M-1 :- In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India and in supersession of all the rules made in this behalf, the Governor of Gujarat hereby makes the following rules to provide for regulating the conditions of service of persons appointed on the Gazetted posts under the Commissionerate of Labour and the Directorate of Industrial Safety and Health, so far as they relate to the passing of the departmental examination, namely:-

1. (1) These rules may be called the Gujarat Labour Department (Conditions of Service relating to Gazetted Officer's Examination) Rules, 2008.
- (2) They shall come into force from the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.
- (3) They shall apply to the Gazetted Officers appointed in-
 - (i) the Commissionerate of Labour, and;
 - (ii) the Directorate of Industrial Safety and Health.
3. In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,
 - (a) "Appendix" means an appendix appended to these rules;
 - (b) "appointed date" means the date on which these rules shall come into force;
 - (c) "direct recruit" means a person appointed on a Gazetted Post otherwise than by promotion from a lower post;
 - (d) "Gazetted Post" means any Class-I or Class-II post under the Commissionerate of Labour and the Directorate of Industrial Safety and Health;
 - (e) "examination" means the examination prescribed under these rules;
 - (f) "specified chances" means the number of chances specified in these rules within which a person is required to pass the examination;
 - (g) "specified period" means the period specified in these rules within which a person is required to pass the examination;
- 3 (1) Every person who on the appointed date holds any gazetted post, shall be required to pass the examination within three chances and within the period of three years from the appointed date.
- (2) Every person who is appointed on any gazetted post after the appointed date shall be required to pass the examination within three chances and within the period of three years from the date of his appointment to such post.

Provided that where a person has a last chance for passing the examination and the examination is held more than six months before the date on which the period of passing the examination expires, the said period of three years shall be deemed to have been extended until the date of the declaration of the result of next examination:

Provided further that if a person appointed by direct recruitment fails to pass the examination within the period of probation, such period shall, if his service be otherwise satisfactory, be extended to such period not exceeding three years in the aggregate, as may be necessary, so as to enable him to pass the said examination in not more than three chances in all:

Provided also that persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes may be allowed one additional chance which shall have to be availed of within a period of one year from the date of the declaration of the result of the examination at which the last normal chance should have been availed of.

4. If a person appointed by direct recruitment fails to pass the examination so required under these rules, his services shall be terminated.
5. In order to be eligible for promotion to the post of Additional Commissioner of Labour, Deputy Commissioner of Labour, Assistant Commissioner of Labour, or Joint Director, Industrial Safety and Health, Deputy Director, Industrial Safety and Health, Assistant Director, Industrial Safety and Health, as the case may be, every Government Labour Officer or Industrial Safety and Health Officer appointed on or after the appointed date, shall be required to pass an examination specified in Appendix - B in three chances within a period of six years from the date of his regular appointment or within three years from the appointed date, whichever is later, unless he has been exempted from passing the examination.

Provided that in the case of a person who has a last chance and the last examination was held more than six months before the date on which the period of passing the examination expires the said period shall be deemed to have been extended until the date of declaration of the result of the next examination so held.

6. A person who fails to pass the said examination within the specified chances and specified period shall not be eligible for promotion to higher post, save as otherwise provided under rule 8.

Provided that in the event of a qualified person being available for promotion to higher post, an unqualified person whose specified chances to pass the examination are not exempted may be promoted to officiate on a higher post, subject to the condition that he shall be reverted on that availability of a qualified person for promotion or in his failure to pass the examination within the period and according to the chances specified in rule 3, whichever event occurs earlier.

Explanation : In this rule, the “qualified person” means a person who has passed the examination or a person who is exempted from passing the said examination and the expression “unqualified person” shall be construed accordingly.

7. A person who passes the examination within specified period and in specified chances, shall on his promotion to the next higher post be assigned seniority over the persons, if any, who although being junior to him in the cadre of the lower post but may have been promoted to the next higher post earlier than him by reasons of his having passed the examination earlier.
8. Any person who fails to pass the examination within the specified period and specified chances, shall notwithstanding such failure, be eligible to appear at any examination held subsequently, on payment of such fee as may be determined by the Government from time to time. If such candidate passes the examination, he shall be eligible for promotion to the next higher post, provided that he shall not be entitled to claim seniority over those persons who have passed the examination earlier than him and have been promoted to the next higher post.
9. The syllabus for the examination shall be as specified in Appendix - B.
- 10.(1)(a) The standard for passing the examination shall be fifty percent (50%) of the total marks assigned to each paper.
- (b) A candidate shall be allowed to answer the papers of all the subjects with the help of textbooks of the subject, such as, bare Acts, rules and text without any commentaries or case laws and the manuals published under the Act.

- (2) An unsuccessful candidate who secures sixty percentage (60%) or more marks in any one or more papers shall be exempted from appearing in those papers at the subsequent examination.
- (3) Any person to whom these rules apply and who, having passed an examination under the Gazetted Officer's (Pre-service Training and Examination) Rules, 1970, appears in an examination held under these rules shall not be required to appear and pass Papers II and III of Part-II of the syllabus of the examination, as specified in Appendix - B.
- 11.(1) A Government employee who intends to appear in examination shall apply for such examination to the Commissioner of Labour, in the Application Form prescribed in Appendix - A, at least sixty days before the date of the commencement of the examination.
- (2) (a) The Commissioner of Labour shall scrutinize the application with regard to his eligibility for appearing in the examination.
- (b) In case of the applicant subsequently decides not to appear at the examination he shall intimate in writing to the Commissioner of Labour, at least 10 days before the date of the commencement of examination.
- (c) In case the candidate fails to intimate in time for not appearing in such examination, and if he is enlisted as a candidate for such examination, he shall be deemed to have lost one chance to pass the examination:
- Provided that the State Government may condone the failure on the part of any person to give intimation if it is satisfied that the person has failed to give intimation within time for reasons beyond his control.
- 12.(1) The Commissioner of Labour shall decide all matters relating to appointment of examiners and conduct of examination.
- (2) The Commissioner of Labour may, considering the availability of candidates conduct the examination, twice a year.

- (3) The intimation regarding place and programme of the examination shall be communicated to the candidates by the Commissioner of Labour.
13. The Commissioner of Labour shall declare the result of the examination in the Gujarat Government Gazette and also communicate the same to the respective departments of the candidates.

by the Government of Gujarat under the Central Acts

AGRICULTURE AND CO-OPERATION DEPARTMENT

Notification

Sachivalaya, Gandhinagar, 10th December, 2008.

CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

No. GHK - 47-2008-AHS-2008-2641-P-2:- In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India, the Governor of Gujarat hereby makes the following rules to provide for regulating the conditions of service of persons appointed as Junior Clerk, Typist, Junior Clerk-cum-Typist, Store Keeper, Account Clerk in the office of the Directorate of Animal Husbandry in so far as they relate to the passing of Departmental Examination namely :-

1. Short title and commencement

- (a) These rules may be called the Gujarat Animal Husbandry Department (Conditions of Service relating to Junior Clerks and Senior Clerks Departmental Examination) Rules, 2008.
- (b) They shall come into force from the date of its publication in official Gazette.
- (c) They shall be applied to the persons appointed to the posts of Junior Clerk, Typist, Clerk-cum-Typist, Store Keeper, Account Clerk, etc. in the Department of Animal Husbandry.

Provided that where, any such person has passed the relevant examination before the appointed date or has been exempted from passing the relevant examination, he/she shall not be required to pass the Departmental Examination as provided under these rules.

2. Definitions:

In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires:-

- (a) "Appendix" means the Appendix appended to these rules;
- (b) "Board" means the Gujarat Subordinate Services Selection Board;
- (c) "Appointed date" means the date on which these rules shall come into force (i.e. date of notification);
- (d) "Clerk's Examination" means the Departmental Examination for Junior Clerks prescribed in these rules and includes the Departmental Examination for Junior Clerks prescribed under the old rules prescribed in 1974 ;

Provided that, if the period for passing the examination provided in subsection (1), (2) or (3) expires before providing him the chances available to him under these rules for passing the Junior Clerks' Examination or Senior Clerks' examination the said period shall be deemed to have been extended up to the date of the declaration of the result of the examination which provides him the last chance:

Provided further that, if a direct recruit referred to in subsection(3) fails to pass the Senior Clerks' examination within a period specified in subsection(3), such period shall, if his/her service be otherwise satisfactory, be extended to such period not exceeding three years (four years in the case of a Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe candidates) in the aggregate as may be necessary to enable him to pass the examination in not more than three chances (four chances in the case of Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe candidate) in all.

4. (1) (a) In order to be eligible for promotion to the post of Senior Clerk, a Junior Clerk who is appointed before the appointed date shall have to pass the Senior Clerks' examination within a period of six years from the date of his/her appointment as a Junior Clerk unless he/she has passed the examination under the old rules of he has been exempted from passing the examination .
- (b) A Junior Clerk who is promoted to the post of Senior Clerk prior to the appointed date subject to passing the relevant examination under the old rules, shall have to pass the Senior Clerks' Examination within a period of three years from the date of his/her promotion to the post of Senior Clerk or within six years from the date of his/her appointment as Junior Clerk, whichever is earlier.
- (2) In order to be eligible for the promotion to the post of a Senior Clerk, a Junior Clerk who has been appointed on or after the appointed date and who has passed the Junior Clerks' Examination shall have to pass the Senior Clerks' Examination within a period of six years from the date of the appointment as a Junior Clerk:

Provided that, no Junior Clerk appointed prior to the appointed date shall be competent to appear at the Senior Clerks' Examination until he has completed three years of service as a Junior Clerk;

Provided further that, no Junior Clerk appointed on or after the appointed date shall be competent to appear in the Senior Clerks' Examination before completion of his/her three years of service as well as clearance of Junior Clerks' Examination;

Provided also that, in the case of a person, who has a last chance if the period of passing the examination as provided in this rule expire before the date of the holding of the Senior Clerks' Examination, the said period shall deemed to be extended up to the date of the declaration of the result of the examination so held.

5. (1) The Departmental Examination required to be passed under subsection (3) of rule 3 shall have to be passed in not more than two chances within the specified period.
- (2) The Departmental Examinations required to be passed under subsection (1) or (2) of rule 3 and subsection (1) or (2) of rule 4 shall have to be passed in not more than three chances within the specified period.

Provided that, the chances already availed of or which should have been availed of before the appointed date under the old rules shall be counted as having been availed of under these rules and they shall be allowed the remaining chances under these rules.

Provided further that, persons belonging to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes shall be given one more chance which shall be availed within a period of one year from the date of the expiry of the period mentioned in rule-3 or, as the case may be, in rule-4.

PART IV-A]

6. (1) (a) If a Junior Clerks fails to pass the Junior Clerks' examination within specified period and specified chances his/her increments shall be withheld until he passes the Junior Clerks' Examination.

(b) Any increment withheld under clause (a) shall become payable to him from the date on which he/she passes the Junior Clerks' Examinations and all future increments shall accrue to him as if no increment had been withheld.

Provided that, such Junior Clerk shall not be entitled to claim the arrears of pay which were lost to him by reason of the increments having been withheld.

Explanation - For the purpose of releasing the withheld increments

"the date of passing the examination" means the date

following the date on which the examination ends.

- (2) If a direct recruit for the post of Senior Clerk appointed on or after the appointed date fails to pass the Senior Clerks' Examination as required by these rules, his/her appointment shall be terminated:
- (3) A Junior Clerk who fails to pass the Senior Clerks' Examination, as required under clause (a) of subsection (1) of rule-4 within the specified period and within the specified chances shall not be eligible for promotion to the post of Senior Clerk and shall lose his/her seniority to persons who have passed the aforesaid examination earlier than him as provided in rule-7 till he/she passes the said examination.
- (4) A Junior Clerk who is promoted as Senior Clerk and who fails to pass the Senior Clerks' Examination as required under clause (b) of subsection (1) of rule-4 shall be reverted to the post of Junior Clerk and shall lose his/her seniority to persons who had passed the examination earlier than him as provided in rule-7 and shall not be eligible for promotion to the post of Senior Clerk until he/she passes the said examination except as provided in rule-7.
- (5) If a Senior Clerk referred to in subsection (2) of rule-3 fails to pass the Senior Clerks' Examination, he/she shall not be eligible for promotion to the next higher post except as provided in rule-7.

7. (1) A Junior Clerk referred to in clause (a) of subsection (1) of rule-4 and a Senior Clerk reverted as Junior Clerk referred to in clause (b) of subsection (1) of rule-4 who has failed to pass the Senior Clerks' Examination within the specified period and specified chances shall, notwithstanding such failure, be eligible to appear at any time in such examination on payment of an examination fee of Rs.100/- (One hundred Rs.) which shall be credited under the budget head " 0403 : Animal Husbandry - Other Income "

- (2) Where such Clerk passes the examination under subsection (1), he/she shall be eligible for promotion to the post of Senior Clerk;

Provided that, he/she shall not be entitled to claim seniority for the purpose of promotion over those persons who had passed the examination earlier than him.

8. A Junior Clerk who passes the Senior Clerk's Examination within the specified period and in specified chances shall on his/her promotion to the post of Senior Clerk, be assigned seniority over a person, if any who may have been promoted as Senior Clerk earlier by reason of his/her having passed the Senior Clerk's Examination earlier.

Where a Junior Clerk, who has passed the Senior Clerk's Examination under clause (a) of subsection(1) or (2) of rule-4 or who is exempted from passing the same is not available for promotion to the post of Senior Clerk, a Junior Clerk whose specified chances to pass the examination are not exhausted under clause (a) of subsection(1) or (2) of rule-4 or rule-5 may be promoted to officiate as Senior Clerk subject to the condition that he/she shall be reverted on availability of a Junior Clerk, who has passed the Senior Clerk's Examination/or who is exempted from passing that examination or on his/her failure to pass the Senior Clerk's examination within the specified period and specified chances, whichever is earlier.

10. Every year The Secretary, Gujarat Subordinate Service Selection Board, Gujarat State, Gandhinagar shall hold each of the Junior Clerk's and Senior Clerk's Examination twice in the year according to the syllabus specified in Appendix 'A' and Appendix 'B'.

11. The syllabus for the Junior Clerk's Examination shall be as specified in Appendix 'A' and the syllabus for the Senior Clerk's examination shall be as specified in Appendix 'B'.

Provided that, the persons who have passed the Junior Clerk's Examination with the syllabus specified in appendix 'A' shall be exempted from appearing in paper I and II of the syllabus specified for the Senior Clerk's examination.

12. A Junior Clerk or a Senior Clerk who intends to appear in any Departmental Examination under these rules shall send his/her application for admission as a candidate for such examination in the Form as per Appendix 'C' at least sixty days before the date of the commencement of the examination to the Directorate of Animal Husbandry, Gujarat State, Gandhinagar through the head of his/her office. The Director of Animal Husbandry shall scrutinize the application with regard to his/her eligibility for appearing in the examination and send such application to the Gujarat Subordinate Service Selection Board, Gandhinagar. If the applicant subsequently decides not to appear in the examination he/she shall give intimation to Gujarat Subordinate Service Selection Board Gandhinagar through the Director of Animal Husbandry at least thirty days before the date of the commencement of the examination. In the event of any person failing to appear in the examination after having enlisted his/her name as a candidate for appearing there but without intimating as aforesaid, he/she shall be deemed to have lost one chance to pass the examination;

Provided that, the State Government may condone the failure on the part of the person to give intimation as aforesaid and the consequences arising there from, if it is satisfied that the person has failed to give intimation within time for reasons beyond his/her control.

13. (1) The standard for passing the examination shall be 50% of the total marks assigned in each paper irrespective of whether they are to be answered with or without the help of books.
- (2) Unsuccessful candidate who secures 60% or more marks in any one or more papers shall be exempted from appearing in those papers at the subsequent examinations.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Gujarat,

HASMUKH PRAJAPATI
Under Secretary to Government.
